

EDUCATIONAL LEADERS FORUM

THURSDAY, 11TH MAY, 2017

LEADING THROUGH COMPLEXITY

Willunga Waldorf School
1 Jay Drive, Willunga SA

www.willungawaldorfschool.sa.edu.au

1.30 to 2.00pm	Registration	Facilitator
2.00 to 3.00 Session 1	Acknowledgement of Country Welcome Verse Kindling the Word When we stand up in front of a group of people to share our knowledge and passions, we bring the essence of our own spiritual striving as a professional and individual which the audience can experience. But we can also bring much more. In this one-hour workshop we will explore what it means to connect to one of the great gifts Spiritual Science and the work of Marie Steiner-von Sivers and Rudolf Steiner offers – the Art of Creative Speech. Through this, we not only stand in our own convictions but serve the Word for the future spiritual evolution of humankind. BIO - Jo-anne Sarre Jo-anne Sarre has worked in the Performing Arts sector as a freelance director, actor, storyteller, playwright and educator since her four-year Speech and Drama training at The Harkness Studio, Sydney in 1983-1986. She has a Diploma of Teaching (South Australian College of Advanced Education 1982) and First-Class Honours in Drama (Flinders University 2009). During her career Jo-anne has trained Waldorf teachers across Australia (Rudolf Steiner College, Sheoak College), UK (Emerson College), Europe, India and China. This includes supporting teachers in their own artistic development as well as assisting in classrooms, directing plays etc. Alongside this she has performed in local, national and international arenas including with The Rose Theatre Company UK and Portal Productions UK. As co-founder of Ink Pot Theatre (professional touring company) and founding Artistic Director of Ink Pot	Kelley McGlashan ELF Committee Chair

	Arts (a Community Arts not-for-profit), she has been actively engaged in bringing high quality theatre as a catalyst for personal transformation and Community Cultural Development.
3.00 to 4.00pm Session 2	The 3 "R"s - responsibility, relationship, risk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reporting to boards • supporting boards - defining and teaching governance skills • What is the principal's role in governance? Steve Klipin Steve Klipin is in his 13th year as the Business Manager of Chrysalis School and in 2012 Steve was elected to Bellingen Shire Council as an independent Councillor and again in 2016 for a second term. A recent focus on conflict management and resolution during post grad study led Steve to understand that seeing our common humanity is critical to the success of our schools in particular and in wider community endeavours too. In his spare time, Steve likes to swim and grow organic vegetables! Steve brings experience, passion and commitment in the local government and independent school sector with a focus on people, ideas and community to this conference. The intertwining of these three focus points underpinned by a commitment to working with form and spirit will be explored in the workshops too.
4.00 to 4.30 pm	Afternoon Tea
4.30 to 5.30 Session 3	Discussion Groups <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sustainability • Survival Skills • Mentors, buddies • Principals Intensive 2018? 	Kelley McGLashan and Fiona Cock
Free Evening – Casual dinner together for those wishing to attend – venue will be announced		